

Newsletter 2

April 2023

Latest Results and Next Steps!

NANOWARE – Increasing Nanotechnology Awareness in European Schools is an ERASMUS+ funded project led by Digicult (PL). The partners representing organisations in the Netherlands, Cyprus, Greece, Turkey, and Romania.

2ND Transnational Meeting

The NANOWARE Consortium met in Person on February 2023 in Bucharest, Romania

A very fruitful meeting was hosted by our partner Asociata Direct. The consortium discussed the project progress and defined the upcoming strategy and tasks.

Project Results Updates:

Result 1:

NANOWARE Educational Pack is ready and Hosted in Learning Motivation Environment.

The pack includes:

- 6 Modules on the Nanotechnology topic with theory and Assessment Quizzes
- Knowledge Validation Opportunity for teachers taking the training.
- Glossary and Resource Bank
- Educators Guide with Lesson Plans

Find the course and resources in the following link:

<https://nanoware-lme.erasmusplus.space/>

Result 2:

NANOWARE Minecraft Worlds

Partners are actively working in the Elaboration of engaging scenarios and storytelling cases around the Nanotechnology topic.

The NANOWARE Minecraft Worlds are under development.

Meet the Partners

Digicult
ICT & Digitalisation of Culture
(Project coordinator)

Atermon (NL) – a Dutch company specialising in gamification and educational technology

Asociatia Direct
Romanian NGO

HeartHands Solutions (CY) – a dynamic consultancy company based in Cyprus

Pamukkale University
Higher Education Institute

Learning Seed
Greek NGO

Follow us online!

Visit the project website: <https://nanoware.erasmusplus.website/>

Check out: <https://www.facebook.com/nanowareproject>